

Be a part of a Philadelphia tradition

Ever watch the parade and think, “I’d love to get involved in that!”

Here’s your chance...

The Avalon String Band is looking for musicians, dancers, and non-players (Marshals) to help behind the scenes. Learn an instrument, travel with the band, build lasting relationships, and take your musical talents to the next level.

Whether you’re just starting off, or looking for a new musical outlet, we want to hear from you.

Like some mummer organizations, Avalon is an all male organization that promotes brotherhood and family. Our band consists of over 10 different father/son, uncle/nephew, and brother combinations. We pride ourselves in having a diverse membership that consists of teenagers to senior citizens. The mummern are everyday working people that do this as a hobby. Our band has members that are police officers, EMTs, teachers, carpenters, accountants and even politicians.

For more information on how you can be apart of this great organization, stop down on a Tuesday night, at 8 PM. We are located at the corner of 2nd and Tasker Sts., or you can email us at joinavalon@avalonstringband.com.

See you at rehearsal!

Just think, you could be strutting on Broad Street with one of Philadelphia’s greatest traditions!
